

NORTHWEST BOYCHOIR

Northwest Boychoir, Apprentices Ben Kromholtz and Maria Johnson, Directors

The Northwest Boychoir, Apprentices are members of the training program that prepares choristers for advancement into the highly acclaimed Northwest Boychoir. This choir of boys ages 7 – 11 maintains an active performance schedule, as well as twice weekly rehearsals as part of their musical training.

The Northwest Boychoir, Apprentices have performed with the Seattle Symphony in their Family Series, Holiday Pops concert and annual Holiday Musical Salute. The Choir has also participated in Mateo Messina's annual benefit concert for Seattle Children's Hospital and the Snowman Foundation's Ten Grands at Benaroya Hall. The Apprentices regularly perform for numerous civic and private events, including Northwest Film Forum's Holiday High Notes and Winterfest.

For more than 40 years, the Northwest Boychoir's musical sophistication has earned its reputation as one of the nation's premier choir programs. The top level Northwest Boychoir is especially popular during the holiday season for its A Festival of Lessons & Carols concert series which has become a Northwest Holiday Tradition for thousands of families in the Puget Sound region.

Auditions for new membership are held twice yearly and are open to boys who will be 6 to 9 years of age at the time of class enrollment. No previous musical training is required.
